

- 1) What is the purpose of a cyber-attack? What type of damage can be done through a cyber-attack?

- 2) What are the benefits of a cyber war over a traditional war?

- 3) Cyber-attacks are not always perpetrated by nation-states like the US, Russia, China, etc. Who are some of the other groups that are not nations that are engaged in cyber warfare?

- 4) What is the reason for engaging in cyber war for a non-nation? Why would a group choose to target a government's computer systems?

- 5) Who should monitor this type of action?
  - a. How should hackers be punished if they hack a government?

  - b. What if they are working for another government?

  - c. What if they don't attack a government but instead attack a company or group?

  - d. What if the target is a terrible organization like a hate or terrorist group?